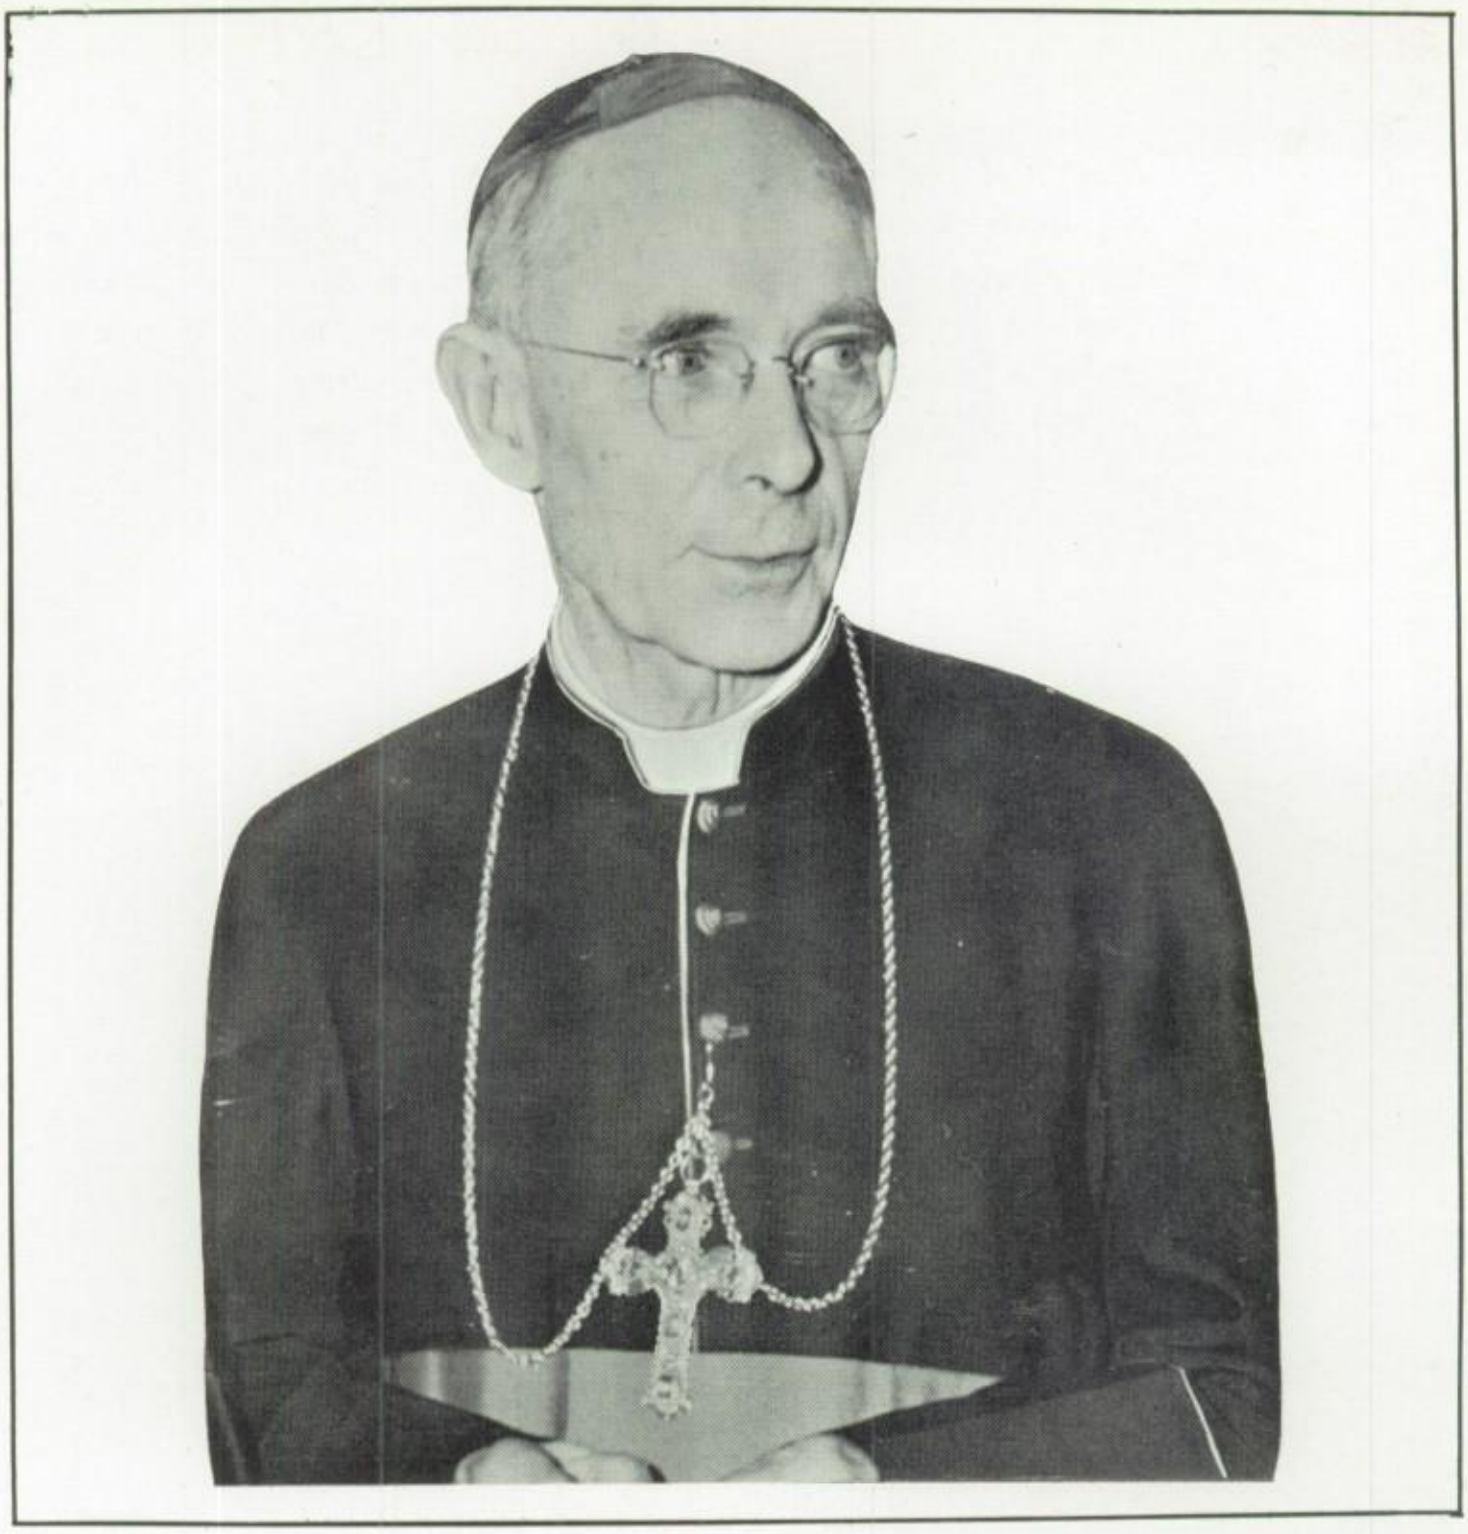
Notre Dame High School

Batavia, New York

Dedication



JOHN FRANCIS CARDINAL O'HARA, CSC

Notre Dame's Class of 1961 is proud to dedicate Mater Dei, to John Francis Cardinal O'Hara, CSC. We are proud to have the opportunity to show our gratitude to this great servant of God.

Cardinal O'Hara was a man who devoted his life to bringing the word of God to his fellow man. He realized that if people wish to make progress toward heavenly goals, toward God, they will need all of the guidance they can obtain. People can help themselves in a measure proportionate to their education. In his realization of this, Cardinal O'Hara sought to find ways to make available the best type of schools in his diocese. Therefore he approved and directed the building of many Catholic high schools in the Buffalo region. Catholic education was and is his answer in helping us get to heaven.

Notre Dame in Batavia was among the new schools that were built. It was dedicated to the Mother of God in 1952. Since that time seven classes have been graduated.

At first, the building of a new Catholic high school in this area seemed to be an enormous undertaking, but Cardinal O'Hara knew that God would show him the way. God certainly recognized the needs of the people in this area.

By dedicating Mater Dei to Cardinal O'Hara, we have found a way to formally acknowledge, and express gratitude for, the foresight, ambition, perseverance, and Godliness of this fine man who died August 28, 1960. May he rest in peace.

Mater Dei

Mother of God! What an ineffable title! The grace of the divine maternity is the key which opens up to weak, human scrutiny the untold riches of Mary's soul, as it is likewise a challenge commanding for her the utmost reverence of every creature. "She alone by her dignity transcends heaven and earth. None among created beings visible or invisible can compare with her in excellence. She is at once the handmaid and the Mother of God, a Virgin and yet a Mother."

Pope Pius XII

MONSIGNOR DAVID P. HERLIHY: Principal, Religion II.

The Very Reverend David P. Herlihy

One of the reasons for the continual growth and development of our relatively young school is the guidance and sincere interest of our principal, the Very Reverend Monsignor David P. Herlihy. From the first moments of our education here the seniors were proud to be called students of Notre Dame, and Monsignor has always been one of the reasons for our deep-rooted feeling.

During freshman year his presence did much to eliminate the confusion that surrounded us and to impress us with the Notre Dame spirit. As sophomores we came to know him a little better. We soon saw that Monsignor Herlihy was a priest endowed with warmth, sincerity, and zeal. Even at this early stage, we were aware of his constant interest in everything at Notre Dame.

During our junior and senior years his name was almost synonymous with Notre Dame. We fully realize that every Notre Dame student owes him a debt of gratitude, but none are more conscious of this than the seniors.

May Our Lord watch over you, Monsignor, and grant that your future years be spent in happiness, contentment, and that peace of mind attained only through complete devotion to the work of Christ.

REV. CHARLES SCHOY: Guidance Counselor; Religion III, IV; National Honor Society Moderator; Home-School Association Moderator.
SISTER M. ANGELS, CSC: Associate Principal; Dean of Girls; World History; American History; Senior Class Moderator.
REV. EUGENE KOLB: Dean of Boys; Religion IV; Latin II, III.

During the second semester Father Schoy was appointed principal of the new Bishop Gibbons High School in Tonawanda. Father Kolb replaced him as Guidance Counselor at Notre Dame.

Isn't the new IBM system wonderful? Rev. Charles Schoy, Guidance Counselor, Sister Angels, Dean of Girls, and Rev. Eugene Kolb, Dean of Boys, think so.

The language department under the direction of Sister Thomas Joseph, Father David Scheider, Sister Justine Marie, Sister Daniel Marie, Sister Mary Dolores, and Sister Miriam Emile is shown here with some of their teaching aids.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: John Kennedy, Treasurer; Charles Bishop, President; James Pontillo, Secretary; James Taylor, Vice-President.

Freshmen

One of the biggest and most challenging steps that a young teenager takes is entering his freshman year in high school. It is the beginning of the transition period from childhood to mature adulthood, and as such it is important that freshmen use this time to their best advantage.

The present freshman class has shown much promise in scholastic fields, and if they continue to do so, will accomplish great things at Notre Dame. They have been ably guided by their moderators, Sister M. Veronica and Father Skupien.

Sophomores

Unity and whole-hearted cooperation identify the 1961 sophomores whose moderators are Sister Bernard Marie and Father Scheider.

The class, besides taking a major part in school activities such as sports, intramurals, Glee Club, and dramatics, has attained an unusual scholastic standing a high percentage of the sophomores having maintained the prescribed average to merit honors. The Christmas dance was the biggest event sponsored by the sophomores, and with such fine organization and hard work, its success was inevitable.

Juniors

This year the juniors have the largest class at Notre Dame. Their class advisors, Father Martin and Sister Justine Marie, have contributed much to the success of the class projects. The juniors held dances, paper drives, and raffles to raise money for their Junior Prom. It was one of the outstanding school events of the year because of the time and hard work put into it.

Many of the members of the class are leaders and participants in such school activities as football, girls' and boys' basketball, Student Council, Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, Nodahi, and the National Honor Society.

Seniors

Let growing youth of both sexes know that a loving Mother's eyes are always on them. No path or circumstance is hidden from her anxious care. Go forward then with determination, O dear young men and women, vindicate the glory of your immaculate Mother. In the face of a vicious world prove that young hearts can still be chaste. And oh how much depends on the genuine, active Catholicity of the home!

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS—Bonnie Gail Morris, Vice-President; Richard Alrutz, President; Carol Buckman, Secretary; John Branche, Treasurer.

Seniors

The senior class of 1961 can look back on the past year and be justly proud of their achievements in the scholastic field and also sportswise. As a class, they successfully completed their projects for the year, including the spaghetti supper and the senior ball, which was held for the first time at the Treadway Inn. The senior class trip to Crystal Beach was an event which all enjoyed.

The seniors are looking forward to a life in which they will help make the world a better place in which to live because they have received the training at Notre Dame High School to do just that.

Activities

From her life we learn that the smallest action, done with profound humility, is better than the greatest action done with the least bit of self-esteem and pride.

Religious Activities

Every year at Notre Dame religion takes an active part in the lives of all its students.

An important activity in which all students participate is the annual retreat. It is a time when everyone devotes his school day to God, thinking of religious teachings and ways in which he may better himself spiritually.

Before lunch period each day Holy Communion is distributed in the chapel. Each month on the First Friday, Mass is said for the student body in the gym.

Monsignor Herlihy distributes Holy Communion to the girls during the lunch hour.

Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS—Martha Perrone, Secretary; Joseph Clare, Vice-President; Michael Welsh, President; Fred Kryman, Treasurer.

The Student Council, through its elected representatives, acts as the voice of the students at Notre Dame. It serves as a means of exchanging views between the student body and the administration and also assists in the organization and direction of student activities. It supervises directly or indirectly the social functions, pep rallies, and other such events concerning the extra-curricular activities of the school.

The Council is composed of its elected officers, the four class presidents, the homeroom representatives, and the representatives of all major organizations and literary projects.

Miss Haeusler's lessons seem to have paid off as is shown at a dance sponsored by the Student Council.

National Honor Society

A meeting of the Honor Society, with guest speaker Mrs. Pies, former art teacher at Notre Dame

This year, thirteen seniors and twenty-two juniors have enjoyed the privilege of being members of the Notre Dame Chapter of the National Honor Society. This is an organization which was initiated to provide leaders for the future. All members must have maintained an 88% average in their first two years and achieved at least an 85% average in their junior year to be sustained as seniors. Besides scholarship, members must also display a high moral character, leadership, and service to the school, the teachers, and classmates.

All students in this society are invited to attend discussions sponsored by the American Association of University Women. Subjects range from politics to music, and guest speakers often are present.

National Honor Society Members elected as officers: Lawerence Cima, Treasurer; Richard Alrutz, Vice-President; Michael Welsh, President; Mary Ann Del Plato, Secretary.

Catholic Students' Mission Crusade

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade has always been a very important part of Notre Dame, principally because it propagates the important work of helping to support the foreign missions of the world through prayer, sacrifice, and study.

This year, under the able direction of Father Martin and Sister M. Veronica, the CSMC enjoyed one of its most successful years.

With the support of the whole student body, the CSMC carried on its annual Christmas card drive, sponsored the annual Hallowe'en dance, Mission Day, and the penny carnival, as well as the penny-a-day campaign.

It can be seen that through these efforts of the CSMC the students of Notre Dame High School are doing their share towards the building of the vast army of Christ.

CSMC delegates are: Row 1: C. Pontillo, J. Burnett, K. Flynn, B. Tosto, M. Clancy, S. Szczesny, J. McKernan, T. Feldman, R. Iannello. Row 2: W. Wind, R. Panepento, P. Macaluso, K. Niccloy, R. HOME-SCHOOL ASSOCIATION OFFICERS—Mr. Robert Mullen, President; Fr. Charles Schoy, Moderator; Mrs. Connie Marchese, Secretary; Mrs. Raymond Chmielowiec, Treasurer; Mr. James Murray, Historian.

Home-School Association

The Home-School Association has the important function of fostering better understanding between the parents and instructors of Notre Dame students.

Father Charles Schoy is its industrious and devoted moderator. Because of his experience in leading the Home-School Association in previous years, he is well qualified to guide this endeavor.

Monthly meetings are conducted at Notre Dame, and parents find that these gatherings provide excellent opportunities to discuss with the faculty the problems, plans, and progress of the students.

Mr. & Mrs. Frank Calarco, parents of a bewildered freshman, Anthony, pause to get their bearings during the Home-School Association's parents' night.

They are greeted at the door of their first class by the cheerful smile of Sister Angels . . .,

. . . and in Latin class Father Kolb teaches, "Porto, portas, portat."

Members of the Home-School Association enjoy a pleasant evening of cards.

Notre Dame Sports Boosters' Club

The Notre Dame Sports Boosters' Club is a group of devoted Catholic laymen who are interested in promoting interscholastic sports at Notre Dame. They are the backbone of the sports program because of their interest and fund-raising efforts. It is through the work performed by these men that Notre Dame can support a sports program.

They promoted the following affairs during the year: a lawn fete at the end of the summer, a membership drive, the annual sports award breakfast, and the annual sports night, one of the big sporting events of the year because of its outstanding guests.

S. Kelly, M. Perrone, L. Bater, A. Welsh, M. Perrone, and M. A. Del Plato pose with one of N. D.'s football heroes, who is modeling one of the new uniforms purchased by Boosters.

Glee Club

The efforts of the combined voices of 150 students under the direction of Sister Thomas Joseph made the Notre Dame Glee Club one to be proud of. Their activities this year included the Christmas and spring concerts, and an added attraction was the combined concerts with Buffalo schools.

The Glee Club not only sounded impressive but also looked impressive in blue robes with yellow stoles. To raise funds for their robes the Glee Club sponsored a candy bar drive before Christmas.

Dramatics

This year the Dramatics Club of Notre Dame has really been busy! They produced a Christmas play, Christmas at Lourdes, under Sister Dolores' direction.

The aspiring actors, with Father Skupien's assistance, entered the one-act play contest held annually for the schools of the diocese and won two gold medals and one silver medal for their fine performance.

Ralpha Gaffney and Prudy Burnett apply make-up while Karen Cherry arranges a prop for the Christmas play.

Rosemary Murray distributes the latest issue of the Nodahi to S. Dorsey, J. Branche and D. Gatgens.

The highlights and many exciting activities which have made the past year such a success have been captured and related to us by the competent staff of the Nodahi.

Their reporters are always on the alert for interesting news items. All sorts of topics appear in the Nodahi, including anything from Father Prina's latest experiments to the basketball games we won.

Every issue of our school paper is received with much enthusiasm by the student body. Indeed, Sister Thomas Joseph, co-editors, Maria Rerrick and Carole Pontillo, and all members of the staff of Nodahi have given abundant reasons to be proud of Notre Dame's school paper.

Maria Rerrick and Carole Pontillo, co-editors of the Nodahi, get a sneak preview of the first publication of the year.

Mater Dei

Studying a dummy sheet are co-editors Joanne Gaeta and Mary Anne Clifford.

The 1961 Mater Dei staff has endeavored to create a yearbook that will pictorially remind the students and faculty of the events that they have witnessed during this year.

Through the guidance of a capable moderator, the efforts of conscientious students, and the cooperation of the faculty, we have a book which is symbolic of a key used to open the door to pleasant memories. It will remind us of those days through which we thought we would never get and those that we never wish to forget.

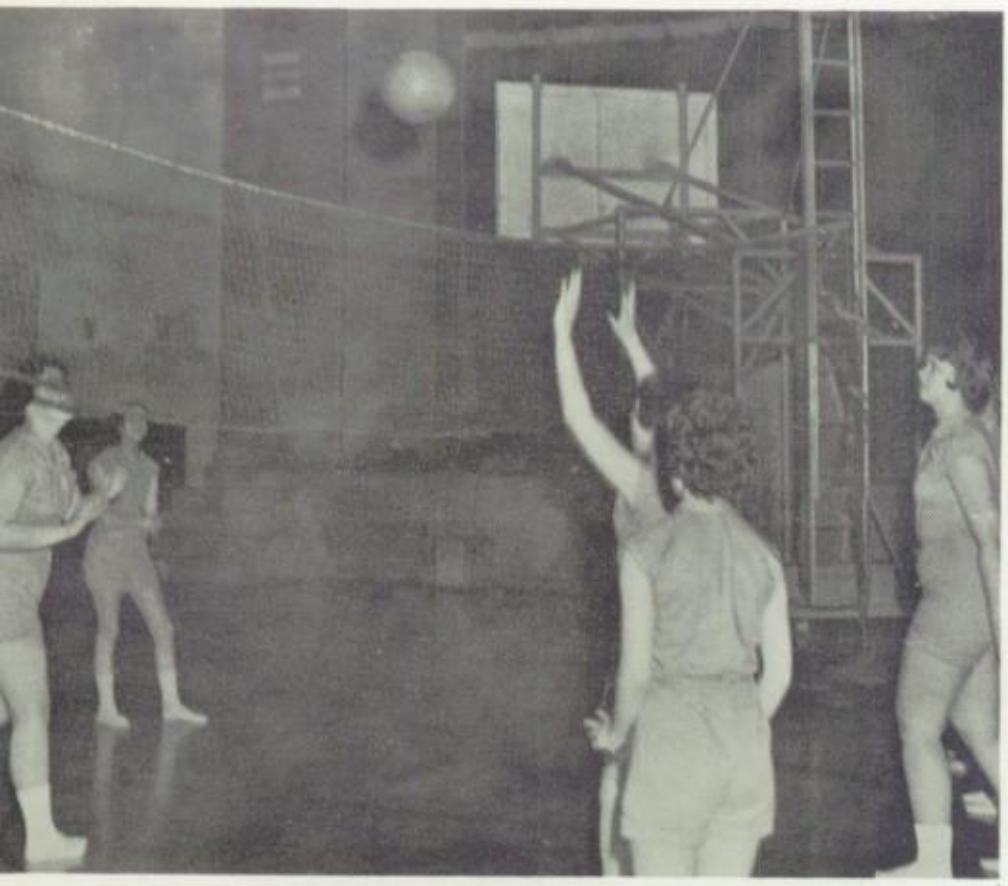
Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, presided over by Mary Kay Waggoner and under the moderation of Sister Bernard Marie is one of Notre Dame's most successful organizations.

The 1960-61 program included intramurals in basketball, volleyball, and softball. On Friday afternoons the GAA members improved their bowling techniques at Mancuso's Bowling Alleys.

A dance was sponsored by the GAA in January. At the end of the year they held the annual banquet to which all the GAA members accompanied by their mothers were invited. At the banquet, awards were given to the members who had taken part in varsity and junior varsity basketball and cheerleading; and also pins were given to those who had taken part in a majority of the intramurals.

GAA OFFICERS—Shirley Szczesny, Secretary; Sandra Almeter, Treasurer; Mary Kay Waggoner, President.



Will she or won't she?

Sue goes up for a one-hander.

Sherry Kelly and Shan Lennon choose up for a softball game.

Sue sinks one in the Colton game.
